

SELECTION CRITERIA - student mobility (study)

As part of the selection procedure, the student must also submit (upload to the Mobility online system) her/his CV and motivation letter, which are not evaluated, but are a mandatory attachment to the application for a student mobility.

In the application form, the student can choose a maximum of 3 universities, in the order of her/his preferences. Application forms which are not submitted by the deadline set for submitting application forms, including all required attachments, will not be accepted. Application forms which will contain false or incomplete data, or that are accompanied by false or incomplete attachments, will not be accepted.

As part of the selection procedure, students are awarded points for individual activities, which are divided into the following 4 categories:

A. Study results - maximum 30 points

B. Language skills – maximum 30 points

C. Professional activities beyond the scope of study obligations - maximum 20 points

D. School and extra-school activities, activities in organizational structures of the faculty, awards - maximum 20 points

In case of equality of points, the higher number of points obtained within the individual categories in the order A to D is decisive. In case of equality of points, priority is given to a student of a higher year of study.

A). STUDY RESULTS (weighted academic average for the study years already completed) Maximum number of points obtained: 30

The weighted academic averages for completed years are entered directly in the application form, so it is not necessary to submit confirmations from the study department.

All of the above mentioned selection criteria are also applicable for the selection of students for other student mobilities, for which students have the opportunity to sign up within the bilateral faculty agreements outside the ERASMUS+ program as well as memorandums of cooperation.

According to the ERASMUS+ rules, it is no longer possible for a student to complete mobility in the country of his/her permanent residence, where he/she uses his/her mother tongue while studying. This condition applies mainly to foreign students studying at the Faculty of Medicine, Comenius University Bratislava, who formally apply for mobility abroad, but in a fact it is their home country.

RECOGNITION OF RESULTS AFTER RETURN FROM STUDENT MOBILITY

The student will be fully recognized for the number of ECTS credits obtained on the basis of the Transcript of Records or the confirmed part C. of the Learning Agreement provided by the foreign university.

In the case, when the student from the study stay (mobility) will bring less credits than he would have received under normal circumstances for completing subjects at the home faculty (which will be registered in the AiS), she/ he is obliged to complete the necessary subjects at the faculty upon her/his arrival from mobility, after an agreement with the professor. Also, we remind to the students that it is possible to transfer max. 12 ECTS and it is not possible to transfer summer internships.

In the Learning Agreement for Studies - Part I, which is completed before mobility, the student is obliged to have chosen subjects for at least 20 credits (ECTS) per semester. It is suitable to have such a number of credits selected that their total sum covers the student's subjects enrolled in the given semester. Also, the student is recommended to observe the content similarity of the subjects that the student will have enrolled at the faculty in the given semester of study and to choose a composition of subjects at a foreign university that corresponds as closely as possible to the subjects enrolled at her/his home faculty in the relevant semester of study.

The student is also obliged to comply with the condition of obtaining a minimum number of 15 credits per semester at a foreign university. Failure to comply with this condition results in the reduction of the allocated grant (sanctions are listed on the website of the University).
